

Purple Sage Pottery offers classes for all ages taught by teachers as committed to teaching as they are to pottery. While grounded in the fundamentals of hand building, throwing and glazing, we strive to nurture your creative spirit. Classes are small, having at most 10 students. You can take full advantage of our well equipped studios, including electric wheels, slab rollers, extruders and various tools. We recycle the clay for you which greatly improves your pot making experience. An extensive selection of beautiful reduction fired glazes is available. Your work is handled with great care, and we pride ourselves on the exceptional results we get from our 70 cubic foot gas fired kiln.

Saturday Open Studio

9:30am - 5:00pm

Saturday Open Studio Time is available to former and current students. No instruction is offered during this time period. Current students benefit from additional studio time between classes and former students may work independently. Either may bring a guest under their guidance. First time guests may attend free-of-charge.

Saturdays with class: an additional $40 will cover students for 10 weeks in conjunction with a class. This fee is kept low to encourage students to practice. Current students may, however, pay $12 per Saturday or $6 per hour.

Former students and guests: may pay $55 a month, $18 per Saturday or $8 per hour.

Kids & Clay

We are again offering our kids classes in 10 week increments. Nurture that creative spirit and enjoy a 10 week session at Purple Sage.
